

2009 10 17 Scouts Redhill Farm camp

A camp organised for the Scouts that won the Points competition all they paid for was there food, they prepared their own menu and then cooked it the leaders were fed well, a really good show by the Scouts

Preparing to walk to camp a really great pitch cooking on open fires all weekend i don't like the smoke in my eyes a bit of fishing to relax and pass the time, not to eat this time though Roast Pork for Saturday dinner the scouts made a really tasty meal and chocolate steamed sponge pud camp fire and spontaneous songs and they then had to clean the Dixies more fishing to relax flag down for the end of a really back to basics camp and a lot of new experiences for the Scouts
