

Thursday ride to the Salutation at Ham 27/03/2008

Colin and Roy on the quiet lanes of the Berkley Vale. It takes some imagination to plot a route of twenty miles from Winterbourne to Ham as the direct way is about half that.

John was a popular choice for boys names back in the 1940's, here are three of them. John Huish (left), John Turton (centre) and John Upward (right).

Another John at the head of the pack - Tyler this time. Although the roads are dry there seem to be plenty of lumps of mud over the lane.

Tony Weaver is one of our regular ride leaders. Sam appears to be enjoying it even more than Tony.

Taking "on the road" pictures from your own bike is a bit hit and miss but if you take enough there are usually a few decent ones.

The peloton about to depart from the Salutation pub. The landlord always put on a buffet lunch for us and ale fans appreciated the choice of local brews. However, the Lammastide at Brookend has since become the pub of choice when out this way.
