Welcome to the July Flyer

I am happy to say that we are able to continue delivering black and white paper copies of the Flyer to all residents of Farringdon. This is possible due to the much appreciated assistance of Mantracourt Electronics Ltd of The Drive, Farringdon who are producing the copies.

We will continue to publish on the Village Facebook page and the Parish Website in colour.

Contributions to the Flyer would be appreciated by the 22nd of the Month please.

This month's cover picture is of one of the the Birth Flowers for July, the Larkspur or Delphinium.

Everyone knows about their zodiac or birthstone. But, not many people know that there's actually a birth flower too which has its own special meaning! Knowing all about birth flower meanings can come in very handy when choosing the perfect birthday flowers to send someone. So here's our guide on every month's birth flower and what characteristics go along with them!

The July birth flowers are delphinium and water lily. Water lilies were named after a Greek nymph and are said to symbolise purity, unity and finding peace and balance. With associations of positivity, delphiniums are very much happy, cheerful flowers to brighten up someone's day! They're also a classic, British bloom and can be found growing wild in many woodlands across the UK.

Interestingly, delphiniums got their name from the Ancient Greeks who thought that the shape of the flower bud looked like a dolphin's nose. (Which we can totally see!) There are hundreds of different species of delphiniums these days and many of them can grow to be 6 foot tall.

Delphiniums are said to symbolise an open heart, positivity, dignity and grace. So we bet those who celebrate a July birthday are lovely, kind-hearted people to be around!

Vicar's article and brief health update

I wrote the following update on my health a few days ago; my apologies for those of you who expect a more spiritual article! However, I do believe very much in the need to keep a healthy balance of mind, body and spirit (however much this phrase is misused), so I don't apologise that much.

More seriously, I wanted to write something – briefly – about grief.

As many of you will know, my stepson died about six weeks ago, in early May. Daff and I are still sorting out his house in Plymouth, ready for its eventual sale. Needless to say, we are still struggling with the grief involved. Daff more than me; also at the moment she can't face coming to church.

I asked her about coming this last Sunday, she thought about it ... and promptly burst into tears. It is ironic that the one of the things which might help us – church, praying, getting closer to God, is difficult when people, thoughts and emotions get in the way.

I know that I struggle when people ask me how I am, at the moment. Do I give an honest answer: not very well, really. Or an avoiding answer: so, so, or a "white lie" - I'm fine, really. Sometimes we don't know how to converse. However, Daff and I both went to a wedding away (in Porlock) and survived, even enjoyed it. But we did avoid the photos, and left the food early.

So what am I trying to say: please remember and pray for those who are grieving, those whose health status is changing. Please continue to be sensitive in how to contact them and offer support in other ways.

It has made me think about how well, or not, we do this in our church buildings. I hope, that once my current health scare is dealt with, that I (and Daff) can be fully restored to you all. I also hope that our churches continue to be places of refuge, peace and tranquillity for all who struggle in whatever form. Blessings be upon you all, Bill

My health update

Having been diagnosed with prostate cancer – about medium risk - I am receiving hormone treatment, and am now on regular three-monthly injections.

I am about to have my first oncology appointment, on Mon 20/06/22, when I shall learn more about my suggested, radical, treatment. This is because I am seen as relatively young and fit(!) I shall be able to tell you more after that point.

I have been given a sick note for the last four weeks, as I was struggling with the effects of a double dose of hormone treatment, but am now mostly much better, apart from the occasional hot flushes!

I am still holding the WCMC in my prayers, and, as ever, am so grateful to all clergy, churchwardens and other lay people who are keeping things "on the road". I have been more than impressed with the services I have been able to attend – including a wonderful outdoor thanksgiving service for Her Majesty's platinum Jubilee.

Prayers and blessings

Bill L

Friends of Farringdon Church

Some years ago a scheme was set up to enable those in the Parish who wished to support the Church financially to do so on a regular basis. This was taken up by those who attended Church as well as those who did not.

We are always looking for more support to cover the maintenance of the building. In fact the roof will need re tiling in the not too distant future. If you were help in some way please contact the Treasurer David Cowler on 01395 232459 or davidcowler@btinternet.com

Since the scheme was set up donations are now able to be made directly to The Parish Giving Scheme administered by the Gloucester Diocese. Farringdon Church then receives the donation and associated gift aid on a monthly basis.

Any baptisms, marriages, funeral services or hospital visits may be arranged by contacting the Church Admin Officer Jill Dupain dupain@hotmail.co.uk or the Church Warden Dawn Cowler on 01395 232249

Shirley Willatt RIP

Some of you will remember Shirley and Peter Willatt who moved to Denbow Thatch in 1997.

Shirley was a very active and faithful member of our village, serving on the Church's PCC, on the Parish Council and was a member of the History Society.

Unfortunately, due to ill health Shirley and Peter had to leave Farringdon a few years ago to be nearer their family in Southampton.

Shirley sadly passed away on 7th June, a couple of years after Peter, and was brought back to Farringdon for her funeral and burial on 24th June, together with Peter's ashes.

We send our love to their family at this difficult time.

FARRINGDON CHURCH JUBILEE FLOWER FESTIVAL

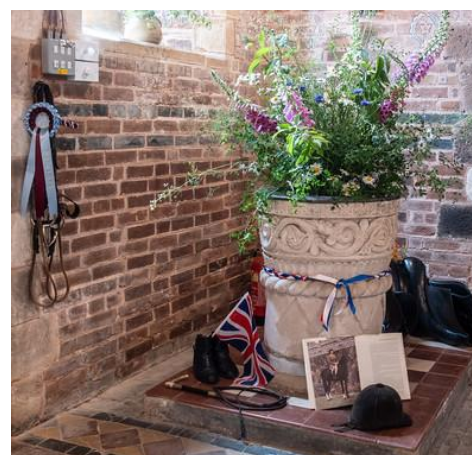

The flower festival which was held at the church over the weekend of the Queen's Jubilee Celebrations was very successful, but could have benefited from more visitors.

Those who participated in arranging flowers in a Jubilee theme really surpassed themselves, and the church looked and smelled truly beautiful after all their efforts.

I would like to thank all those who took part for their time, talent and enthusiasm.

Thank you all

Dawn
